About Multicultural Affairs Queensland

The Queensland Multicultural Resource Directory (the Directory) is distributed by Multicultural Affairs Queensland (MAQ), Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services.

MAQ's purpose is to provide whole-of-government leadership to improve outcomes for people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. MAQ is committed to the Government's community objectives for Queensland being economic independence, quality frontline services, culturally vibrant communities, safe and resilient communities and a capable and agile government organisation.

Directory details are published from information supplied to MAQ by organisations. Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure accuracy, MAQ does not accept responsibility for any errors, omissions or inaccuracies in this publicaton.

Updated regularly, be sure to visit www.communities.qld.gov.au\multicultural for the latest MAQ information and to access an online version of the Directory.

For any changes or new listings in both the online and the print version, please advise MAQ as soon as possible in writing, via email or by using the tear-off fax-back form opposite.

Appendix B – Department of Human Services – Centrelink

The Department of Human Services - Centrelink is a government agency which delivers a range of Commonwealth Government services to the Australian Community. Centrelink is the place to go if you need information and assistance if you are:

- A parent or a guardian
- Recently separated or divorced
- Looking for work
- Planning to study or undertake training (or currently studying or training)
- Self-employed or responsible for a farm
- In a crisis or needing special help
- Recently moved to Australia to settle
- Ill, injured or have a disability
- Caring for someone who is frail, aged, ill or who has a disability
- Needing help after someone has died
- Planning for or needing help in retirement

Centrelink services are available through a network of Customer Service Centres, visiting services, Community Agents, Career Information Centres and a nationally linked call centre network.

Centrelink provides information about and referral to English language programs and services for newly arrived migrants and refugees. Centrelink also provides information on Skills Recognition for those with overseas qualifications and skills.

Centrelink Multicultural Service Officers (MSOs) promote Centrelink services to the community and liaise with people from migrant and refugee communities and other people from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds. Contact details for MSOs in Queensland are provided in the Directory under Services – Subject Listings.

Customers who prefer to use a language other than English can conduct most of their Centrelink business over the phone or make an appointment with Centrelink by phoning the Centrelink Multicultural Service on 13 1202.

Customers can also conduct most of their Centrelink business over the phone in English by calling one of the Call Centre numbers below. Calls to 13 numbers cost 25 cents from anywhere in Australia. Calls from public pay phones or mobile phones will be charged at a higher rate. Mobile calls are charged at mobile rates.
